

I am concerned about media diversity. Therefore I wish to express my desire as an American who advocates democracy that our media not be allowed concentration in the hands of the few. Media access for the ordinary citizen is a must for democracy. for the sake of democracy, let us each do all in our power to promote, enhance and create media democracy.